Universität Hamburg is dedicated to sustainability, equal opportunity, and family-friendly policies. We also prize cultural diversity, communication, and interaction among people from different backgrounds and with different lifestyles.

The GIGA German Institute of Global and Area Studies is an equal-opportunity employer. Diversity and the reconciliation of work and family life are of great importance to the institute.

The GIGA and Universität Hamburg have agreed on a joint appointment and invite applications for the position of DIRECTOR OF THE GIGA INSTITUTE OF MIDDLE EAST STUDIES (IMES) in conjunction with a PROFESSORSHIP (W3) FOR CONTEMPORARY HISTORY AND POLITICS IN THE MIDDLE EAST in the Faculty of Humanities commencing as soon as possible, ref. no. 2277/W3

Responsibilities:
The successful candidate is expected to teach and conduct research in the field of contemporary history and politics in the Middle East. As Professor of the Faculty of Humanities the incumbent will have teaching obligations of one course per semester (two teaching hours per week) and examination duties. She or he is further expected to participate actively in the instruction of students pursuing a teaching degree in the respective discipline.

Section 12 subsection 7 sentence 2 of the Hamburg Higher Education Act (Hamburgisches Hochschulgesetz, HmbHG) applies.

The position as Director of the GIGA Institute of Middle East Studies (renewable 5-year terms) includes the permanent positions of researcher at the GIGA and the above-named professorship. Presence at the GIGA is required. As IMES Director (see also Section 6 of the GIGA Charter), the successful candidate will mainly:

- conduct and direct research at the IMES (to be developed in conjunction with GIGA’s Research Programs as part of the Institute’s matrix structure),
- manage the IMES (including duties as member of the GIGA Executive Board and other bodies, mentoring and pastoral responsibilities towards staff, and responsibility for quality assurance), and
- interact closely with policy makers (especially at the Federal Foreign Office) and represent the IMES in the media and to the broader public.

Requirements:
Academic qualifications and additional requirements as specified in Section 15 HmbHG.
Further criteria:
Publications on contemporary history and politics of the Middle East; experience in acquiring and carrying out externally funded projects; experience in policy advice and knowledge transfer, as well as organizational and leadership experience should be demonstrated.

Academic training and expertise in contemporary history, political science, or related fields; outstanding academic record with a clear fit to the GIGA’s research profile. Research specialization in one or more of the GIGA Research Programs will be an advantage. Proven international academic experience, especially well-established record of working on and with the Middle East, including language skills relevant to the region; English proficiency; and, if applicable, the willingness to learn German in due time.

We are looking for scholars with excellent leadership qualities and communication skills. Following hearings, selected candidates will be assessed to ascertain skills in the areas of management and human resources.

The University places particular emphasis on the quality of teaching and therefore requests that applicants provide details of their teaching experience and objectives.

In accordance with Section 14 subsection 3 sentence 3 HmbHG, Universität Hamburg and the GIGA seek to increase the proportion of women in teaching and research and encourage female academics to apply.

Qualified disabled candidates or applicants with equivalent status will receive preference in the application process.

For further information, please contact Prof. Dr. Ulrich Mücke at +49 40 428 38 48 39 or ulrich.muecke@uni-hamburg.de.

The application deadline is 15 March 2018. Please submit your application, including standard documents (CV, list of publications, evidence of teaching competence, proof of experience in acquiring external funding and carrying out externally funded projects, copies of certificates of academic qualification, plans for research and teaching) and reference number _2277/W3_ to:
